Sample Itinerary:

Day 1—A NEW fall tour takes us by coach to Muskegon, MI, where we board the Lake Express, Michigan and Wisconsin’s high speed auto ferry. At record-setting speed, its just 2.5 hours, coast-to-coast landing in beautiful Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The scenic lake crossing is such a relaxing experience and far better than the typical trip around Lake Michigan by bus negotiating Chicago’s congested highways. Dinner on own on the ferry. Stay (2) nights at the Hampton Inn - Downtown Milwaukee.

Note: Ferry departs at 4:45 pm.

Day 2—A sightseeing tour of Milwaukee highlights our morning. Known as a “big city of little neighborhoods”, our tour features the city’s one-of-a-kind culture. The tour also includes a visit to the Basilica of St. Josephat. Built in 1901, the Basilica was designed after St. Peter’s in Rome. After lunch is the Harley-Davidson Factory. Learn about the history and culture of this iconic American company and get a deeper look on a Back Roads Tour. Our last stop is a tour of a local brewery. Dinner included.

Day 3—Visit one of the most unusual and bizarre attractions in America - The House on the Rock. What started in 1945 has evolved into a truly remarkable achievement, and an amazing man-made retreat featuring visionary architecture, eclectic collections, incredible stories and an extreme imagination that is too unusual to properly describe. Arrive in the Wisconsin Dells late afternoon. Tonight join us on an Upper Dells Dinner Cruise, exploring hidden passages and cruising past towering cliffs and dramatic rock formations. Lodging at the Hampton Inn.

Day 4—Tour the Big Cat Rescue & Education Center, where they provide a safe place and a comfortable home for neglected and unwanted big cats. The center also educates the public about these extraordinary animals and the actions that necessitate the need for the Rescue & Educational Center. Head to Lake Geneva one of the Midwest’s most beautiful national wonders. Voted “one of Travel & Leisure’s Top 10 Most Beautiful Towns in America”, it is commonly referred to as the “Newport of the West” for its pristine natural beauty and stunning lakefront estates. Highlighting the historic atmosphere of Lake Geneva are the well-preserved mix of homes that display a historical spectrum of American residential architecture, from Gothic Revival cottage and large picturesque Queen Ann Style mansions, to former Colonial Revival and progressive Craftsman style homes. Plus outdoor adventure, old world history, and the area’s top attractions. The afternoon is at your leisure in their world-class downtown, full of interesting shops, specialty boutiques, galleries, pubs and eateries. Lodging for (2) nights at the Harbor Shores Resort, located right on Lake Geneva, and right near the heart of downtown. Waterfront rooms for ALL highlight our two night stay.

Day 5—Visit the Spinning Top & Yo-Yo Museum, an unusual attraction with its unique and lively visit/tour with a presentation. Try 40+ hands-on spinning tops and hands-on action top games, see the amazing exhibit of 2000 tops & yo-yos & gyroscopes; top spinning videos, try the I Spy Hunt plus enjoy a live presentation by celebrity, The Top Lady, Judith Schulz. This is not a typical museum, rather it is a program, guided tour, with hands-on tops. Mid afternoon join us on stunning Lake Geneva for an afternoon Ice Cream Social boat cruise. All aboard the Grand Belle of Geneva for a scenic cruise plus a sumptuous Breyer’s Ice Cream Sundae. Tonight join us at Dancing Horses Theatre for their show “The Power of a Dream”. This dazzling spectacle features an array of horse breeds who perform alongside their trainers in this fantastic cavalcade of equestrian artistry. Dinner included.

Day 6—En route home BY BUS, tour the Jelly Belly Factory and see how they make the world famous jelly beans. Early evening arrival home.
