

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES:

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

Angelo's Northwood Villa (included lunch) - The Northwood Villa has been around for a long, long time. Dating back to the prohibition era, the building stood as a safe haven for alcohol and gambling amongst other organized crime activity. Ran by the Purple Gang, its location was perfect for smuggling whiskey from Canada, into Detroit, and spreading it through Michigan and down into Ohio. Even after the speakeasy days, the Villa continued to thrive as a supperclub for many decades until it finally closed in the early 90's. Angelo Tsipis purchased the building in 2000 to reopen and continue the legacy of the truly iconic building. As to not stray from the historical past of the building, he chose to keep the dated, vintage decor of the building. This not only held up the history of the building but also created an atmosphere that takes you back in time as soon as you step foot in the dining room.

Guided Historical Tour - Escape into the Glass City's underworld and enjoy a sightseeing adventure featuring famous Toledo crime scenes from the turn of the 20th century through the 1940's. Explore several gangster hit locations, Toledo's infamous Tenderloin, and the sites of popular casinos and gambling spots.

The Original Tony Packo's (included dessert) - Tony Packo's has been serving authentic Hungarian food in the Toledo area since 1932. In 1972, Burt Reynolds signed the first bun to adorn the wall of Tony Packo's. Since that time, celebrities from all walks of life have been asked to sign a Packo "bun." Tony Packo's gained world-wide fame when M*A*S*H character Corporal Maxwell Klinger, who was played by Jamie Farr, another Toledo native, made mention of the Packo restaurant in six episodes of the show.

Tour price includes gratuities for above trip inclusions. BIANCO DRIVER GRATUITY IS NOT INCLUDED.
