Coral Gables Restaurant

Originally built in the 1920's, was known as a roadhouse, or fancy restaurant where the food was good, and the place was steeped in atmosphere. In the 1930's & 40's, the Gables' walls echoed to the music of some of America's greatest bands. Tommy Dorsey and his hit orchestra, Duke Ellington, Stan Kenton, Woody Herman, The Four Freshman and the Ink Spots all played here.

Uncle John's: Back in the early 1900's, our Cider Mill was used as a Cattle Barn where we raised cattle, sheep and even draft horses. Today, we have gently converted it to a Cider Press, Donut Shop and sitting area. However, the charm still remains.

We continue making cider the ol' fashioned way. We do not use preservatives or additives, and do not pasteurize. We use only superior quality fruit and no drops.
