First Congregational Church of Toledo - Founded in 1833, the First Congregational Church of Toledo is the oldest congregation organized within Toledo's original boundaries. From 1844 to 1913, the church occupied a succession of three meeting houses on St. Clair Street in what is now Downtown Toledo. In 1913, First Church merged with Central Congregational Church. The pews and eight Tiffany stained glass windows from the 1878 church were incorporated into the Collingwood Meeting House which was dedicated in 1916. One of the many historic treasures to be found in Toledo is the collection of stained glass windows belonging to the Early Renaissance-inspired First Congregational Church. The renowned artist Louis Comfort Tiffany designed many of the windows in the church, windows that are as stirring for their visual splendor as for their spiritually-based themes.

Georgio's Café International (included lunch) - "A delight in every way," is how the notable Zagat Survey described Georgio's whose philosophy is simple: "every great meal requires the absolute best, freshest ingredients. There is no substitute for quality. From the very beginning in 1986, we've served only the finest local and organically grown produce, grass-fed prime beef, free range chicken and the freshest seafood delivered daily. Taste the difference."

The Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral - The Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral is the only Pateresque (architectural style of 16th century Spain) cathedral in the world. Layers of paintings and frescoes of saints and angels reach to the ceiling with a magnificent stained glass rose window and mosaic altars.

Wixey Bakery (shopping time) - For over 80 years, Wixey Bakery has been a piece of Toledo history and while times have changed, Wixey Bakery hasn't. Wixey Bakery has always been family owned and operated. Today, fourth generation family members can be found at the bakery daily. Christie's Candies and Mints was established in 1973 and has been a Toledo staple ever since. From penny candy to hand made chocolates, Christie's has it all. Lickety Split is a Toledo landmark serving soft serve ice cream and more for over 20 years. Both Christie's Candies and Lickety Split are within walking distance of the bakery.
