Oxford Memorial Maples

The Oxford Township Parks and Recreation initiated its Memorial Tree Program in 2018 to provide families the opportunity to plant memorial trees for their loved ones in Seymour Lake Township Park.

Maple trees will cost $300. The trees will be planted in Seymour Lake Township Park on both sides of the roadway starting at the Smith Silo to the rear of the park. An engraved memorial stone will be placed at the base of a tree.

For additional information and application, please contact the Oxford Township Parks & Recreation Office at 248-628-1720.

Those we love don't go away.
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard
But always near.
Still loved, still missed and
So very dear.
