

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

Great Lakes National Cemetery (Guided drive through tour) - Great Lakes National Cemetery is a United States National Cemetery established in 2005 and is one of two national cemeteries in Michigan, the other being Fort Custer. A place of abundant beauty, the cemetery borders Gagan Lake in Holly. One hundred year old trees line Belford Road, forming a lush canopy that serves as a fitting and stately entrance to the sacred grounds, a final resting place for military veterans. One hundred American flags gently wave in the breeze on the Avenue of Flags, overlooking row upon rows of white marble tombstones. The property's rolling hills are teeming with wildlife, including a magnificent bald eagle that has made the cemetery its home.

The Holly Vault (Afternoon Tea) - Once a Circa 1860s bank and later a resale shop, the Holly Vault is now a vintage venue for upscale events in a small town atmosphere. Owned and operated by HGTV's Cari Cucksey (Cash and Cari).

Historic Battle Alley (shopping) - Located in downtown Holly, this one-of-a-kind destination offers a little something for everyone, from eclectic shopping opportunities to all sorts of eerie, enduring stories from the past.

Heavenly Scent Herb Farm - Housed in a 1910 barn, painted to look like 3 European store fronts. The shop offers a variety of home decor items and more. You will be surrounded with beautiful bright colors and stunning fragrances as you stroll through ten differently themed gardens.
